

HEARTS

PURSUIT OF PARTNERS, INC.

Our company represents a beautiful, creative, intelligent, fit, successful professional woman who is currently searching for a partner with whom to share her many interests.

Sophisticated yet down to earth, she is warm, affectionate and a true believer in romance-always ready to embrace new experiences and the changes they bring. Walking, biking, boating and dancing are just some of the activities she enjoys. She loves to travel especially Europe, has a passion for cooking, entertaining and the performing arts. Caring and supportive, she loves to spend time with friends and family in her close knit social circle.

She would very much like to meet an active intelligent, attractive, physically fit, established, young at heart 59-65 year old gentleman who has a fun, warm, outgoing personality, an active lifestyle, is emotionally evolved, and, above all a great sense of humour.

If you are a kind, caring gentleman and believe you match our client interests, please email, call or write quoting #VS1009 for a personal confidential interview with Jane Carstens.
