

PURSUIT OF PARTNERS INC.

Executive Private Search

Our company represents a successful, well-educated, attractive and fit Asian professional woman who would like to meet a gentleman to share her varied interests.

Well travelled and athletic, she enjoys tennis, golf, biking and skiing. Balancing a fulfilling career with a cosmopolitan lifestyle she enjoys all that city life has to offer as well as quiet dinners at home.

Our client would like to meet an articulate, cultured, worldly and physically fit gentleman 45+ who shares her love of life and family and is possibly, but not necessarily Asian.

If you are interested in finding out if this sincere woman is for you please write, call or email quoting #VS1030 for a personal confidential interview with Jane Carstens.
